

NATIONAL DRINKING WATER WEEK

- WHEREAS, Water is a defining part of our past, present and future; and
- WHEREAS, Water is a basic and essential need of every living creature; and
- WHEREAS, Our health, comfort, and standard of living depend upon an abundant supply of safe drinking water; and
- WHEREAS, We are all stewards of the water infrastructure upon which future generations depend; and
- WHEREAS, The citizens of the City of Roswell should have a safe and dependable supply of water both now and in the future; and
- WHEREAS, The City received the Georgia Association of Water Professionals Water Plant Gold Award for 2013 for meeting and exceeding Safe Drinking Water Act standards; and
- WHEREAS, The City of Roswell Water Resources Division will hold its 3rd Annual Water Plant Open House and Drinking Water Week Festival on Saturday, May 3rd; and
- WHEREAS, We are calling upon each citizen to help protect our sources of water from pollution, practice water conservation, and recognize the importance of a safe, convenient and sustainable water system.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jere Wood, Mayor of the City of Roswell, do hereby proclaim May 4th – 10th, 2014 as National Drinking Water Week and ask all the citizens of the City of Roswell to recognize and participate in this national event.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Roswell to be affixed this 28th day of April, 2014.

MAYOR JERE WOOD
