Buyer shall have 30 days from the Binding Agreement Date ("Due Diligence Period") to evaluate Property, the feasibility of the transaction, the availability and cost of financing, and any other matter of concern to Buyer. During the Due Diligence Period, Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon notice to Seller if Buyer determines, based on an evaluation of the above, that it is not desirable to proceed with the transaction. If Buyer writes a check for earnest money and the same is deposited into Holder's escrow/trust account, Holder shall not be required to return the earnest money until the check has cleared the account on which the check was written. In the event any earnest money check is dishonored for any reason by the bank upon which it is drawn, Holder shall promptly give notice to Buyer and Seller. Buyer shall have three (3) banking days after notice to deliver good funds to Holder. In the event Buyer does not timely deliver good funds, Seller shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Buyer.
- B. Entitlement to Earnest Money: Subject to the Disbursement of earnest money paragraph below:
1. Buyer shall be entitled to the earnest money upon: (a) failure of the parties to enter into a binding agreement; (b) failure of any contingency or condition to which this Agreement is subject; (c) termination of this Agreement due to the default of Seller; (d) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with a specific right to terminate set forth in the Agreement; or (e) upon the closing of Property.
 2. Seller shall be entitled to the earnest money if this Agreement is terminated due to the default of Buyer. In such event, Holder may pay the earnest money to Seller by check, which if accepted and deposited by Seller, shall constitute liquidated damages in full settlement of all claims of Seller. It is agreed to by the parties that such liquidated damages are not a penalty and are a good faith estimate of Seller's actual damages, which damages are difficult to ascertain.

C. Disbursement of Earnest Money: Holder shall disburse Earnest Money only as follows: (a) at Closing; (b) upon a subsequent written agreement signed by Buyer and Seller; (c) as set forth below in the event of a dispute regarding earnest money; or (d) the failure of the parties to enter into a binding agreement (where there is no dispute over the formation or enforceability of the Agreement). ☐ 1. Reasonable Interpretation by Holder. Holder may disburse the earnest money upon a reasonable interpretation of the Agreement, provided that Holder first gives all parties fifteen (15) days notice stating to whom and why the disbursement will be made. Any party may object to the proposed disbursement by giving written notice of the same to Holder within the fifteen (15) day notice period. Objections not timely made in writing shall be deemed waived. If Holder receives an objection and after considering it, decides to disburse the earnest money as originally proposed, Holder may do so and send notice to the parties of Holder's action. If Holder decides to modify its proposed disbursement, Holder shall first send a new fifteen (15) day notice to the parties stating the rationale for the modification and to whom the disbursement will now be made. If there is a dispute over the earnest money which the parties cannot resolve after a reasonable period of time, and where Holder has a bona fide question as to who is entitled to the earnest money, Broker may interplead the earnest money into a court of competent jurisdiction. Holder shall be reimbursed for and may deduct from any funds interpleaded, its costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees actually incurred. The prevailing defendant in the interpleader lawsuit shall be entitled to collect its attorney's fees and court costs and the amount deducted by Holder from the non-prevailing defendant.

☒ 2. Arbitration. Buyer and Seller agree that any earnest money dispute shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. Buyer and Seller agree to engage N/A MEDLEY & KOSAKOSKI, LLC or another arbitrator mutually agreeable to the parties ("Arbitrator"), to settle the earnest money dispute. The award of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto, and Holder shall promptly disburse the earnest money in accordance with said award. The costs of any such arbitration shall be shared equally between the Buyer and Seller and shall be promptly paid directly to the Arbitrator. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained herein, if the parties have not selected an Arbitrator above and cannot agree on an Arbitrator to resolve any dispute within thirty (30) days from the beginning of the earnest money dispute, Holder shall have the right to interplead the earnest money in accordance with paragraph 5.D (1) above.
